

Corporate In-house Training

CPR - First Aid - AED - Bloodborne Pathogens Instructor Training

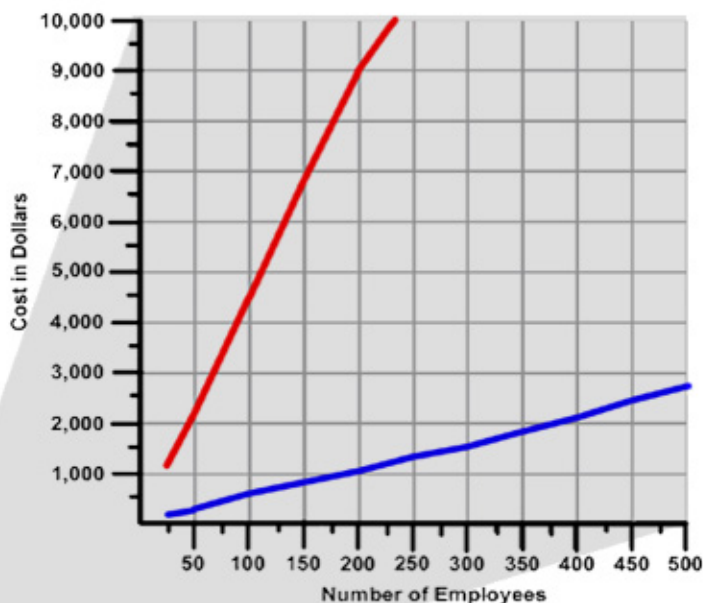

● Professional

● OSHA Compliant

● Cost-Effective

It all adds up.

— Out-Sourced Training

— In-House Training

Based on $45 for an 8-hour provider CPR and First Aid class

Based on $5.25 for each 8-hour CPR/First Aid combo student workbook

EMS Safety understands your need to ensure compliance with federal and state mandates. We also understand that you have time & budgetary constraints.

That's why our series of emergency response and safety training programs are flexible, professional and cost-effective. Our programs are approved nationwide, allowing you consistency from facility to facility.

EMS Safety can take the stress out of preparing for and managing an emergency. We are committed to helping you succeed. Our unique instructor manuals guide both new and experienced instructors through the entire process and are an unmatched resource for effective training. Use EMS Safety as your solution for training, supplies and support. It's as simple as point and click.

Visit www.emssafety.com for more information about our products and services or call (800) 215-9555 today to learn how to become an instructor!